

Error report

This page should be used to identify and review any issues identified by the built-in validation of Sage Accounts Production. Please review the below and follow the guidance text against each page listed.

(Suppress this page from the accounts in the database under Reporting options > General options by selecting 'Final accounts', then 'Suppress error report in final accounts')