Directors' Responsibilities Statement

for the financial year ended 31st December 2025

The directors are responsible for the preparing the Directors' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable Irish law and regulations.

Irish company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under the law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with the Companies Act 2014 and FRS 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland", applying Section 1A of that Standard, issued by the Financial Reporting Council. Under company law, the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the assets, liabilities and financial position of the company as at the financial year end date and of the profit or loss of the company for the financial year end and otherwise comply with the Companies Act 2014.

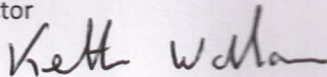

In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies for the company financial statements and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether the financial statements have been prepared in accordance with applicable accounting standards, identify those standards, and note the effect and the reasons for any material departure from those standards; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis it is unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

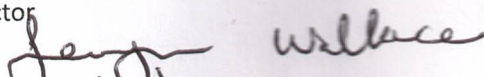

The directors are responsible for ensuring that the company keeps or causes to be kept adequate accounting records which will correctly explain and record the transactions of the company, enable at any time the assets, liabilities, financial position and profit and loss of the company to be determined with reasonable accuracy, enable them to ensure that the financial statements and Directors' Report with the Companies Act 2014 and enable the financial statements to be readily and properly compiled. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Certified Accountants' Report to the Board of Directors on the Unaudited Financial Statements of KW Steel Erecting Limited

In order to assist you to fulfil your duties under the Companies Acts 2014, we have compiled the financial statements of KW Steel Erecting Limited for the year ended 31st December 2025, set out on pages 5 to 12 from the books of account and information and explanations you have given to us.

This report is made to the Company's Board of Directors, as a body, in accordance with the terms of engagement. Our work has been undertaken so that we might compile the financial statements that we have been engaged to compile, report to the Company's Board of Directors that we have done so, and state those matters we have agreed to state to them in this report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the Company and the Company's Board of Directors as a body, for our work, or for this report.

We have carried out this engagement in accordance with technical guidance issued by The Chartered Institute of Management Accountants and have complied with the ethical guidance laid down by the Institute relating to members undertaking the compilation of financial statements.

You have acknowledged on the balance sheet as at 31st December 2025 your duty to ensure that the Company has kept proper accounting records and to prepare financial statements that give a true and fair view under the Companies Acts 2014. You consider that the Company is exempt from the statutory requirement for an audit for the year.

We compiled the financial statements in accordance with the guidance contained in M14 (Revised) 'Compiling and reporting on financial statements not subject to audit' from the accounting records and information and explanations supplied to us by the directors.

We have not been instructed to carry out an audit or a review the accounts of KW Steel Erecting Limited. For this reason, we have not verified the accuracy or completeness of the accounting records or information and explanations you have given to us and we do not, therefore, express any opinion on the statutory accounts.
